Basestation Bytes | Spring 2024

Kia ora koutou,

Welcome to our Spring newsletter. November is a busy month at Basestation as we celebrate a milestone 10 years of coworking! Many of you may even remember back to Thursday 6th November 2014 when the doors first opened on Durham Street.

By way of celebrating this milestone, we are offering a lucky person or company a chance to win 10 weeks of office space! That's right, there's a chance to be part of the Basestation whānau so please share this awesome opportunity with your networks. Read on to find out more.

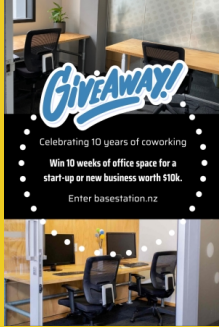

As we ramp up to Christmas and new year, we want to remind you that Basestation will be closed to the public over the Christmas and new year holidays - but we're never really closed. Residents will continue to have access to our shared spaces to catch up on any urgent work over the holiday period.

If you're on the lookout for a new way of working, meeting rooms, or event space in 2025, get in touch with the team for a free tour today!
